DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Statement Of Reason For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 4-12 and 14-25 are allowed.

Regarding claims 1 and 12, the prior art of record does not teach all the combined elements and/or components for a system for providing distributed printing in an enterprise, including a portion of the plurality of print objects corresponding to the plurality of printers, the print objects corresponding to the plurality of printers including a plurality of attributes for each of the plurality of printers and the plurality of print objects each having a hierarchical name identifying a location of the print object in the enterprise, in addition the factors to perform scheduling print jobs.

Regarding claim 15, the prior art of record does not teach all the combined steps for a method for performing distributed printing in an enterprise, including a portion of the plurality of print objects corresponding to the plurality of printers, the print objects corresponding to the plurality of printers including a plurality of attributes for each of the plurality of printers and the plurality of print objects each having a hierarchical name identifying a location of the print object in the enterprise, in addition the factors to perform scheduling print jobs.

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art of record does not teach all the combined elements, components and steps as discussed above in the "examiner's statement of reasons for allowance".
